Erin School Parent Teacher Club Scholarship

The Erin School Parent Teacher Club is honored to present two $1000 scholarships for a graduating high school senior who attended Erin School. The scholarship will be awarded to an Erin School graduate who attended at least two years at Erin School. The PTC will award the scholarships to a student who is pursuing higher education at a college, university, and as for the Hellmuth and Carol Mae Wagner Scholarship will be weighted towards application in a pathway for agriculture/technical/vocational school. In the event there is no agriculture/technical/vocational school interest, the Helmut and Carol Mae Wagner Scholarship could be transferred to a student pursuing higher education at a college or university.

The deadline for returning applications and other requested data will be the first Monday in April. An Erin School Scholarship Committee, comprised of 3 individuals, will review all applications and other requested data. Based on the information provided, the committee will select one recipient and notify him/her no later than the third Monday in May.

Information Requested:

- 1) Completed application form
- 2) Three letters of reference other than family (i.e. priest, minister, teacher, administrator, employer).
- 3) An essay answering the following question: What life experiences, including those from Erin School, have shaped who you are today and what challenges have you overcome in achieving your goals, both educational and otherwise?
- 4) High School Transcript
